I knew my package would be arriving today. I was so excited. I ordered one of those jackrabbit toys my friend had told me about and was ready to have the time of my life. I waited by the door in my robe. Why even get dressed, I was just going open the box and hop into bed. I'd been drooling about this since I ordered it online. It had everything from rotating, to vibrating, to heat and you could set the ears to your preference. I shivered just thinking about it. I know it sounds silly, me sitting at my dining room table, in my robe, completely wet thinking about a toy. But it had been ages since I'd had sex and my fingers were tired.

I knew my package would be arriving today. I was so excited. I ordered one of those jackrabbit toys my friend had told me about and was ready to have the time of my life. I waited by the door in my robe. Why even get dressed, I was just going open the box and hop into bed. I'd been drooling about this since I ordered it online. It had everything from rotating, to vibrating, to heat and you could set the ears to your preference. I shivered just thinking about it. I know it sounds silly, me sitting at my dining room table, in my robe, completely wet thinking about a toy. But it had been ages since I'd had sex and my fingers were tired.

The doorbell rang and I rushed to the door. As I opened it I saw the delivery girl, dressed in all brown. Her uniform was tight fitting and hugged her curves. "Special Delivery." She said. I thought quickly and invited her in. She agreed, this was her last stop for the day and wasn't in a hurry. "Well good, you can stay and see what you've brought me." I know my smile was a bit mischievous cause she blushed.

I got a knife and cut open the box. I pulled the flaps apart to reveal a ton of shipping peanuts. She shifted through them and found another box. She pulled it out and held it up. "Ultra Jackrabbit" she said. What it was dawned on her and she blushed again. I giggled as I opened the box. She took the instructions and starting reading, telling me how to change the settings and how to use it.

I had a bright idea. "Hey, why don't you show me how to use it?" Her face went completely red. "Me? But I don't know how to use that. I've never used on before." "You've got the instructions right there." I retaliated. She knew she'd lost that battle. I invited her to my bedroom where I promptly dropped my robe to the floor. Her gasp startled me and I turned to face her. "Am I offending you in any way?" I asked. She shook her head, "No, quite the opposite. I'm quite turned on." With that said she removed her brown outfit and made for the bed with instructions in her hand.

As she read the instructions, I tried to follow them. I just couldn't concentrate with her sexy body next to me and her sultry voice filling my ears. I turned on the rabbit and managed to get it to just vibrate. As she read the instructions to me I ran the rabbit along her shaven mound. She jerked slightly as the rabbit hummed along her moistened lips. She looked over at me and smiled. I took that as a 'go ahead'. So I did. I pushed it a little harder against her lips so the tip passed her lips and touched her clit. The moan that escaped her lips filled the room.

She began to squirm on the bed as I moved the vibrating little rabbit around her pussy. How do I make it rotate? She quickly found where the instructions pointed out the button and repeated it to me. I giggled and kept rubbing her clit with the humming fake cock. As she let her guard down I slipped the rabbit deep into her wetness. Her gasps quickly changed to a low moan as I changed the setting from vibrate to rotate. The little rabbit filled her completely. I found the button to make the ears vibrate along her clit. Her eyes rolled back into her head. She loved this. I did too. I was so wet.

She writhed around on the bed as I worked the Jackrabbit slowly in and out of her tight hole. I reached up with one hand and gently squeezed her tits, helping her build up her climax. As the rabbit rotated inside her, it hit her g-spot over and over again. She began to rock her hips; her moans grew louder and more frequent. I climbed up her body, placing kisses on her soft skin. Her scent filled my nose as I worked the rabbit deeper into her sweetness. As I slipped my tongue from my mouth and flicked it across her erect nipples her hand found my ass and squeezed tightly. I gently sucked her nipples into my mouth and rolled my tongue around them.

I felt her body begin to tremble as I kissed my way up her neck. Our tongues met and danced outside of our mouths until she lifted her head and shoved her tongue into my mouth. With that she moaned loudly, her body tensed and she wrapped her arms tightly around me. Her climax was consuming her. Her moans were making my entire body tingle.

As her climax began to subside she slid her hands down my body and found my wet pussy. Her fingers worked nimbly around my clit. The waves of pleasure they sent over my body made me shudder. She wrapped her other hand around mine that help the rabbit, and with a flick of her wrist the rotating stopped and the rabbit was free of her tight pussy. She brought her other hand up to my breast and began to knead it like dough. She rolled over on top of me and quickly had the rabbit rubbing against my clit. She turned it on and soon the light humming filled the room again.

My moans blended in with the rabbit's constant humming. My clit ached for release as she teased me with the fake cock, letting it lightly touch me then taking it away. I whimpered every time she pulled it away. With one smooth motion she plunged the rabbit deep into my hole and hit the rotate button. I was in sheer heaven. Her lips met mine again as she moved the toy in and out of my pussy. The ears rubbed against my clit, sending shivers up my spine.

It didn't take long for me to cum. Making her peak and hearing her moans had gotten me pretty fucking horny. As her hand continued to roam my body and the little cock spun around in my hole I came. I closed my eyes tightly and arched my back as the pleasure from her sent me over the edge. My moans drowning out the hum of the good little rabbit. After a few moments my climax began to subside and she pulled the 'cock' from my pussy. She brought it up to our faces and licked one side of it like a Popsicle. Both of our juices covered the rabbit entirely. I joined her. Our scents filled my nose as I tasted us.

After we cleaned the toy she kissed me firmly again and smiled as she looked for her clothes. I lie there on the bed still trying to regain my senses. As she pulled on her shirt she asked if she could come over tomorrow after her shift to help me test the rabbit again. I laughed and agreed. Special Delivery indeed!
